

Charles & Joanne Dull Living Legacy Fund

Charles served as Director of Christian Education at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Waukegan, Illinois. He was a professor at Concordia University Nebraska, held executive posts within Aid Association for Lutherans, and was Head of School Hong Kong International School.

He was a consultant/program director for The Mahler Company and was a private consultant with various USA non-profits.

Over the years, his servant heart has led him to offered his time, energy, and finances in support of numerous church-related and non-church-related organizations, boards, and committees.

Charles served the KINDLE Board of Directors as a Member-At-Large from 2003 to 2009.

Joanne taught in four Lutheran schools (Grace, Northbrook, IL; Concordia, Kirkwood, MO; Emmanuel, Elmhurst, IL; St. John, Seward, NE) and in three public schools in the Appleton, WI area.

Her strong commitment to supporting the struggling and grieving have led her to organize and nurture ChristCare groups in four different cities.
