

Carsten & Georgia Falkenberg Living Legacy Fund

Highly invested in Trinity Lutheran Church, Crown Point, Indiana.

Held leadership positions in public companies for over 30 years in the areas of research, forensic toxicology, teaching, and health/safety/environment.

Built a successful financial advisory/planning business as an independent contractor with Thrivent Financial for 18 years.

Initiated an annual Pack-Away-Hunger event in their community, which packed over one million meals in the first nine years.

Carsten has been a Charter member of KINDLE since 2001 and a member of its Board of Directors since March 2012.